DPG to Attend *RAILWAY 2017 INTERCHANGE

July 26, 2017

Dayton, Ohio - Dayton-Phoenix Group has announced that it will be attending the RAILWAY 2017 INTERCHANGE conference and tradeshow to be held this year September 17-20th at the Indianapolis Convention Center.

“We are excited to participate in this annual Industry event,” stated Chad McLelland, Director of Sales & Marketing. “It provides us with an opportunity to meet with our customers, discuss their needs and to use this information to drive our product development.”

This year DPG will be introducing several new products and services including our “ADVANTAGE SERIES™” products. “DPG ADVANTAGE SERIES™” products represent a new generation of purpose-built products designed to meet the changing operating conditions of our rail customers,” stated Chad McLelland. “They are all robustly designed to provide longer life, lower lifecycle cost, improve operational efficiency, and extend time between change-outs.”

Our new solid state Smart Compressor ControllerST (SCCST) Drive System will be one of the new ADVANTAGE SERIES products featured at this year’s show.
